Calera High School

AP English Literature and Composition 2015 Summer Reading

Required Reading: The Kite Runner by Khaled Hosseini, A Doll’s House by Henrik Ibsen, and Jane Eyre by Charlotte Bronte

Directions: You have TWO separate Summer Reading Assignments:

Assignment #1

Read AND annotate ALL novels: Jane Eyre (Bronte), The Kite Runner (Hosseini), and A Doll’s House (Ibsen)

Annotate the text by writing in the margins and marking or highlighting the text for key information. If you are using a library book, you may use post-its. If you are reading the book electronically, write your annotations on a separate sheet of paper. Suggested information to note:

~Begin to annotate. Use a pen, pencil, post-it notes, or a highlighter (although use it sparingly!):

*Summarize important ideas in your own words.
*Add examples from real life, other books, TV, movies, and so forth.
*Define words that are new to you.
*Mark passages that you find confusing with a ???
*Write questions that you might have for later discussion in class.
*Comment on the actions or development of characters.
*Comment on things that intrigue, impress, surprise, disturb, etc.
*Note how the author uses language. A list of possible literary devices is attached.
*Feel free to draw picture when a visual connection is appropriate
*Explain the historical context or traditions/social customs used in the passage.

~Suggested methods for marking a text:

*If you are a person who does not like to write in a book, you may want to invest in a supply of post it notes.
*If you feel really creative, or are just super organized, you can even color code your annotations by using different color post-its, highlighters, or pens.
*Brackets: If several lines seem important, just draw a line down the margin and underline/highlight only the key phrases.
*Asterisks: Place an asterisk next to an important passage; use two if it is really important.
*Marginal Notes: Use the space in the margins to make comments, define words, ask questions, etc.
*Underline/highlight: Caution! Do not underline or highlight too much! You want to concentrate on the important elements, not entire pages (use brackets for that).
*Use circles, boxes, triangles, squiggly lines, stars, etc. Whatever makes sense to you!

The annotations AND journal assignment are due on the FIRST day of school.

Assignment # 2
Complete a TYPED Character Dialogue Journal assignment on a major character from any one of the three assigned readings. Your character journal will be almost like a character timeline, charting how the character changes throughout the text. You will come to an ultimate conclusion about the character in the final entries, making an argument/explaining your opinion about this character.

All journals are to be completed individually; no group work is allowed. If any evidence of group work exists in the journal entries, then a grade of zero will be earned by the students involved and disciplinary action may take place.

Due Date: Hard copies of journals are due on the FIRST day of school. They must be printed and stapled when you arrive to class. Rubrics must be attached as the last page.

Character Dialogue Journal Assignment

How to complete this assignment:

1. Select ONE character from ONE novel to focus on as you read. You might look for growth or development in the character, relationships with others, insights that the character gains, etc. Pick a character that plays a pivotal role in the novel.

2. Find 15 examples of textual evidence spaced throughout the novel that reveal information about your character. Create a two-column chart. Use a Word Document and create a table with two columns, labeled as follows: on the left What the Book Says and on the right What I Say.

3. Left-hand column: Record the textual evidence (direct quotes from the novel) under the column labeled What the Book Says. Be sure to include the author and page number in MLA Format. (See example on the following page).

4. Right-hand column: Respond to your passage under the heading What I Say. Each response should contain a minimum of five sentences. Discuss what the passage reveals about your character. Try to go beyond the obvious!
